Garrigues wins the 2010 Client Choice Award

Garrigues emerged victorious from the ‘2010 Client Choice Awards’ in Spain, handed out every year by the International Law Office review for excellence in client service and the ability to offer added value that stands out from the rest of the industry. International Law Office has been awarding these accolades since 2005 in more than 45 countries the world over. Garrigues picked up the same award in 2007.

This year’s awards also singled out the individual work of legal practitioners. In Spain, Ricardo Gómez, partner in charge of Garrigues, won in the Corporate Tax category, while Corporate/Commercial Partner Javier Marzo took top honors in M&A.

The selection of the winning firms and professionals was based on reports and face-to-face interviews with over 2,000 clients. Noteworthy among the aspects assessed are the quality of legal advice offered by firms, business know-how, communication with clients, transparency, use of new technology, professional experience of the team and response time when faced with a particular problem.
