

The award is handed down by the global guide 'PLC Which Lawyer?'

In-house counsel chose Garrigues as, 'Iberian Firm of the Year'

May 14, 2010

MADRID - Garrigues has emerged as the winner in Iberia of the 2010 PLC Which lawyer? Awards handed down every year by the global guide to leading lawyers and law firms.

This award recognizes Garrigues' outstanding service provided throughout its extensive network of offices both in Spain and Portugal (the largest one in Iberia with 29 offices in the Peninsula). The Firm was chosen purely on the votes received from in-house lawyers. Over 5,500 legal departments were invited to have their say in picking the winning law firms for the 34 awards granted this year.

Practical Law Company (PLC) is a provider of legal know-how, transactional analysis and market intelligence for lawyers with offices in London and New York.

GARRIGUES is the largest Continental European legal services firms, both in terms of billings and number of fee earners. The Firm, which provides full advisory services, boasts a comprehensive network of offices in Spain has its own offices in London, New York, Brussels, Lisbon, Oporto, Bucharest, Warsaw, Casablanca, Tangiers and Shanghai.