

Financial Times names Garrigues Most Innovative Law Firm in Continental Europe

Logalty, the joint-venture between Garrigues and T-Systems that enables contracts to be signed securely over the web, won the Technology and Know How Award

Garrigues also made the top ten in the general ranking and was commended in the following categories:

- Client Service, for the Affinitas CO2 network, a global network in climate change expertise
- PPP, for Aguacanal, the first irrigation network developed in Spain under a PPP-like scheme in Spain
- Responsible Business, both for our CSR Report and the pro-bono accounting training courses for Latin-American judges offered by several of the firms' professionals through the Garrigues Foundation
- HR, for the training course provided in collaboration with Harvard University for new hires
