Restructuring and Insolvency
Mergers & Acquisitions

Andrés Ignacio Martín is a principal associate in the Restructuring and Insolvency Department. He advises debtors, creditors and investors in restructuring and refinancing processes, as well as in court insolvency proceedings and pre-insolvency proceedings, both domestic and cross-border.

He also provides advice on transactions involving the transfer of assets or business units within insolvency or pre-insolvency scenarios (distressed M&A) and on the design and execution of strategies aimed at maximizing recovery.

Experience

Andrés Ignacio Martín joined the firm in 2012 and was promoted to principal associate in 2022.

He has extensive experience in financial distress scenarios, business and financial restructuring processes, insolvency and pre-insolvency proceedings , especially in providing advice on transaction for the sale and purchase of assets, debts, distressed businesses and production units.

He has also amassed broad expertise in the defense and protection of claims, rights, guarantees and contractual positions with debtors in pre-insolvency or insolvency situations, and in the implementation of strategies aimed at maximizing recovery.

He acts as business partner of the Restructuring and Insolvency Department in relation to the firm’s Innovation and Digitalization Sub-Committee.
