

José Joaquín Verdugo

Principal associate
Santiago de Chile

joaquin.verdugo@garrigues.com

Isidora Goyenechea 3477, Piso 12
Las Condes - Santiago de Chile (Chile)

Tel: +56 2 29419000

Fax:

Dispute Resolution: Litigation and Arbitration

José Joaquín Verdugo is a principal associate of the civil litigation and national and international arbitration practice.

He has extensive experience in the representation of clients in high complexity litigation and arbitration cases, and in negotiation and mediation processes.

Experience

José Joaquín has advised clients in conflicts of a wide variety of fields, such as mining, construction, energy and corporate, between many others.

He also serves as the Secretary of Arbitral Tribunals of the Center of Arbitration and Mediation of the Chamber of Commerce of Santiago.

Before his incorporation to Garrigues, he worked in the litigation and arbitration practice of the lawfirm Cariola Díez Pérez-Cotapos (2013-2016).

Academic background

LL.M. in International Dispute Resolution, King's College London (2020).

LL.B., summa cum laude, Universidad de los Andes (2012).

Award "Facultad de Derecho" to the student with the highest graduation's average mark; Award "Claro y Cía." to the student with the highest Civil Law courses' average mark; Award "Departamento de Derecho Procesal" to the student with the highest Procedural Law courses' average mark; Award "Grupo Vial" to the student with the highest Commercial Law courses' average mark; Award "Premio de honor" 2011, 2010, 2009 and 2008, to the student with the highest average mark on the fifth, fourth, third and second year of Law School.

Memberships

José Joaquín belongs to the Chilean Bar Association

Distinctions

José Joaquín´s practice has been recognized by Legal 500