Media and Entertainment

Rafael is a partner of Garrigues in the Madrid office. He joined the firm in 1998 and has pursued his career mainly in the area of international taxation, advising both listed companies and Spanish multinationals, and nonresident investors (business groups and investment funds) in their transactions in Spain.

Rafael specializes in tax law in the EU, on which he has advised numerous taxpayers on aspects related to the recovery of taxes held to be contrary to the freedoms of establishment and movement of capital, as well as on important tax-related cases involving State aid. His expertise covers the advice and defense of clients in tax litigation before Spanish and European courts.

He is a regular collaborator of several universities and business schools in the area of tax law in the EU, a member of the board of directors of the Asociación Española de Derecho Financiero (Spanish branch of the International Fiscal Association-IFA) and the correspondent in Spain of European Taxation.

Experience

Rafael joined the Madrid office of Garrigues in September 1998 and has been a partner since 2011. He specializes in providing ongoing advisory services to both Spanish and foreign listed companies and multinational groups, and handling M&A and financing processes for international private equity entities and investment funds. He has also advised and represented multinational companies in inspection proceedings before Spanish and foreign tax authorities, as well as in judicial review proceedings conducted before the Spanish courts.

In recent years, within his scope of expertise in EU taxation, he has acted as a lawyer for various Spanish and international companies and institutions in important tax proceedings regarding State aid (financial goodwill and Spanish tax lease system, among others) and the recovery of taxes incorrectly paid over, pursuant to European legislation, especially by collective investment undertakings. Rafael has also participated in making and defending requests for preliminary rulings from the Court of Justice of the European Union.

Rafael is a member of the firm's International Training Program Committee and represents Garrigues in the international network of firms World Services Group, where he has held several executive positions.

Besides Spanish, he speaks English and French fluently.
