

Vicente Bootello Machín

Partner

Madrid

vicente.bootello@garrigues.com

English Spanish

Hermosilla, 3

28001 Madrid (Spain)

+34 91 514 52 00

+34 91 399 24 08

Tax
Automotive

Tourism and Hotels

Experience

Vicente Bootello specializes in advising both national and foreign companies, organizations and individuals, especially in the area of tax planning for Spanish investments abroad, foreign investments in Spain and general taxation of nonresidents.

As a lawyer and tax adviser to numerous multinational groups, he has participated in a number of major investment and business restructuring processes.

He is a regular speaker at conferences covering topics relating to international taxation both within and outside Spain and Europe. He has also lectured on international taxation on various training programs at Centro de Estudios de Garrigues and Universidad San Pablo CEU.

Academic background

Lawyer, Degree in Law, Universidad San Pablo CEU, Madrid - majoring in Business Law (6 years).

He has attended numerous specialist courses and seminars on tax and legal matters in Spain and abroad.

Publications

Co-author of "International Tax Handbook" (*) of the Instituto de Estudios Fiscales (2nd to 5th editions).

Author of numerous articles published in Spanish and foreign newspapers and journals (for example, Euromoney's International Tax Review, European Taxation, The Journal of International Taxation, European Law Office, Moneda Única and Empresa Exterior) focusing on tax law and international trade. He also coordinates and co-authors Garrigues' annual publication entitled "A Guide to Business in Spain", published by the Ministry of the Economy and Competitiveness.

(*) originally published in Spanish
