Daniel Parejo has been a lawyer at Garrigues at its Madrid office since 1997.

He pursues his practice in the area of commercial law, specializing in cross-border mergers and acquisitions (with both private equity funds and industrial companies), corporate law (board secretarial services and corporate reorganizations) and contract law (distribution agreements, agency agreements, retail trade, general terms and conditions, consumer law, etc.). He has a wealth of experience in the retail sector and the automotive industry.

Experience

Daniel Parejo, who joined Garrigues in 1997, works at the firm’s Madrid office. He has extensive experience in corporate and commercial law and specializes in transactions.

Throughout this professional career, his practice has focused on commercial law, specializing in mergers and acquisitions, corporate law and contract law. In particular, he has participated in multiple projects, most with cross-border implications, including most notably:

- Recurring legal advice on corporate and contractual matters.
- His involvement as secretary to the board of directors and legal counsel to multiple Spanish companies and subsidiaries of foreign groups.
- Advice on mergers and acquisitions, led or participated in by private equity funds or industrial companies from a wide range of industries.
- Advice on the restructuring or reorganization of corporate groups at national and international level.

Many of the transactions in which he has participated involve a broad spectrum of business sectors, including, among others:

- Private equity funds in LBO and MBO transactions.
- Automotive.
- Retail.
- Energy.
- Education.

He has also delivered various seminars on the legal aspects of the sale and purchase of companies, joint ventures and international contracts at the Centro de Estudios Garrigues and the Asociación para el Progreso de la Dirección.

Furthermore, he regularly contributes to academic publications in the main specialist journals.

Daniel is a member of the Madrid Bar Association, the UCL Alumni - University College London -, the Harvard Club of Spain and the Real Colegio Complutense - Harvard University.
