Tax

Iñigo García specializes in Tax Law, mainly in the areas of transfer pricing and international taxation. He is currently located in Mexico City and is responsible for the transfer pricing area for Latam.

Experience

Iñigo has extensive experience in the diagnosis, analysis, implementation and documentation of transfer pricing policies in multinational groups, as well as in advising on inspection procedures related to related-party transactions, in prior valuation agreements with the Spanish Tax Administration and in other tax aspects related to valuations of companies and intangible assets.

As part of the firm's expansion strategy, Iñigo moved to Mexico City to lead the transfer pricing area in LATAM. From this new position, Iñigo has continued participating in tax documentation, valuation and audit projects in different Latin American jurisdictions, and has participated in international projects together with the tax consulting area in which he has coordinated the actions of various offices of the firm. Adapting to the diversity of the legal framework in numerous LATAM countries has given Iñigo a broad vision of the nuances and appropriate and optimal strategies for each jurisdiction.
