GARRIGUES

Camilo Silva Correa

Principal associate

Santiago de Chile

camilo.silva@garrigues.com

Isidora Goyenechea 3477, Piso 12

Las Condes - Santiago de Chile (Chile)

Tel: +56 2 29419000

Administrative and Constitutional Law
Dispute Resolution: Litigation and Arbitration
Infrastructure

Camilo Silva Correa is a Principal Associate of Garrigues.

He has extensive experience in the drafting, negotiation, and contractual support of all types of engineering, construction, and services contracts for civil, infrastructure, building, mining, and industrial works.

Camilo Silva Correa also specializes and has extensive experience in the formulation of claims before public and private entities, as well as in dispute resolution, litigation, and arbitration related to the engineering and construction industry.

He has a Master's Degree in Construction Law from the University of Melbourne, Australia, where he obtained the Melbourne Graduate Scholarship, and has been professor of the Construction Law Diploma at Pontifical Catholic University of Chile.

Camilo Silva Correa is also a member of the Chilean Society of Construction Law, the Australian Society of Construction Law, and the Spanish and Ibero-American Arbitration Club.

He has been recognized in The Legal 500 legal directory.

Experience

Camilo Silva has extensive experience advising national and international companies on contractual risk management and project execution.

He has also worked in the resolution of highly complex disputes, representing clients in strategic disputes within the infrastructure, concessions, and construction sectors. In particular, he has extensive experience in arbitrations related to concessions, construction, and infrastructure, participating in proceedings before the Santiago Chamber of Commerce (CAM Santiago), the ICC (International Chamber of Commerce), as well as in special bodies such as the Technical Panel on Concessions, the Constitutional Court, and the Arbitration Commissions of the Public Works Concessions Law, among others.

Before joining Garrigues, he was a founding partner of Riquelme & Silva Abogados and was chief lawyer in the Construction Vice-Presidency of Salfacorp.

Academic background

- Master of Construction Law, The University of Melbourne, Australia (2019).
- Law Degree, Pontificia Universidad Católica, Chile (2010).

Memberships

Camilo Silva Correa is a member of the Chilean Society of Construction Law, the Australian Society of Construction Law, and the Spanish and Ibero-American Arbitration Club.

Distinctions

He has been recognized in The Legal 500 legal directory as Next Generation Partner.