Tax

Silvana García Pedrayes is a lawyer specializing in international taxation, taxation of high net worth individuals and advisory services for high net worth clients in the private sector. She is experienced in designing cross-border tax structures, intergenerational wealth planning, global asset reorganization and pre-migration planning.

Throughout her professional career, she has advised multinational families, international investors and companies on international tax structuring strategies, regulatory compliance and wealth planning in a global context.

She has developed her professional career between the United States and Mexico, participating in complex international wealth planning projects, tax regularization processes and the structuring of cross-border investments.

She holds an LL.M. from the University of Pennsylvania and is a Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist (ACAMS).

She was named a Rising Star in the Citywealth Powerwomen Awards USA 2025 and served as a judge in the 2026 edition.

She is fluent in Spanish and English and has knowledge of French and Portuguese.

Experience

Silvana García Pedrayes is a senior associate in the Tax department, who specializes in international taxation, wealth planning and advisory services for private-sector clients.

She has experience advising high net-worth families, international investors and multinational enterprises on the design and implementation of international tax structures, intergenerational wealth planning and cross-border capital mobility strategies.

Throughout her career she has participated in projects involving global wealth planning, pre-migration planning, tax regularization and the structuring of cross-border investments, as well as in the analysis of tax implications arising from changes of residence and liquidity events.
