Administrative and Constitutional Law

Planning, Zoning and Environment

Camila Munizaga is a lawyer in the Administrative and Constitutional Law area of Garrigues' Santiago de Chile office. Her practice covers public law, public procurement and environmental law, with particular expertise in matters relating to tender procedures and the performance of contracts with government agencies.

Experience

Her practice focuses on public law, public procurement and environmental regulation, with a particular emphasis on advising on tender procedures and the performance of contracts with government agencies. She also supports clients in dealings with the Public Procurement Tribunal and in proceedings before the Office of the Comptroller General of the Republic.

Prior to joining Garrigues, Camila was a lawyer at Barros Silva Varela & Vigil (2025–2026). She previously completed a semester-long international exchange program at Université Paris-Panthéon-Assas in France (2023) and worked as a paralegal at Grunberg Puyol Abogados (2022).

She is fluent in Spanish and English, and has a working knowledge of French.
