

GARRIGUES

María Rosario Baeza Pérez

Junior

Santiago de Chile

rosario.baeza@garrigues.com

Isidora Goyenechea 3477, Piso 12
Las Condes - Santiago de Chile (Chile)
Tel: +56 2 29419000

Administrative and Constitutional Law

María Rosario Baeza is a member of the Administrative and Constitutional Law Department of Garrigues, Santiago de Chile office, where she has been working since 2026.

Her practice focuses on administrative contracting, public works concessions, and personal data protection.

She holds a law degree from the University of Chile.

Experience

She has experience advising companies on administrative law matters, particularly in public infrastructure projects, regulatory compliance, and administrative sanctioning proceedings.

She has also provided legal advice on personal data protection and cybersecurity matters, particularly regarding the implementation of new regulatory changes and compliance programs.

Throughout her professional career, she worked as an advisor to the Ministry of Economy on sectoral authorization matters, gaining experience in sectoral regulation, liaising with various public agencies, and institutional design.

Academic background

Bachelor of Legal and Social Sciences. University of Chile (Highest Distinction).

Teaching activity

She has been a teaching assistant for the courses Introduction to Economics, Microeconomics, Market Failures, Public Utility Regulation, and Economic Law, as well as for the Civil Law courses at the University of Chile.