Tax

Emiliano has professional experience in the legal field with a focus on tax law, advising domestic and foreign companies across a wide range of industries, as well as representing them before the tax authorities in a variety of tax disputes derived primarily from administrative proceedings and tax refund denials. Emiliano has also participated in representing clients in litigation before the Federal Administrative Justice Tribunal, the Collegiate Circuit Courts and different federal and local courts, as well as in constitutional protection (“amparo”) lawsuits and appeals for reconsideration. His practice has enabled him to develop a strategic perspective for addressing taxpayers' needs, particularly in the automotive, aerospace and retail industries, in their dealings with the State as tax collector.

Experience

Emiliano Segura is a lawyer in the Tax practice. He has experience in tax and administrative dispute resolution, representing clients before the Federal Administrative Justice Tribunal, the Collegiate Circuit Courts and different federal and local courts.

Moreover, he provides recurring advisory services to companies in administrative proceedings, actions for annulment and constitutional protection (“amparo”) lawsuits. His experience in these matters has afforded him substantial insight into the automotive and aerospace industries, assisting taxpayers in their dealings with the State as tax collector.

He also has practical experience in managing and overseeing proceedings before the tax authorities, including stays of administrative enforcement proceedings, tax refund requests, penalty relief, and the managing of expert evidence, thereby enabling him to provide clients with comprehensive and effective tax advice.
