Kerstin has experience in tax law, mainly focusing on tax advisory services. She has advised and assisted clients in mergers and acquisitions, multinational restructuring processes, obtainment of authorizations to receive deductible donations (authorized donees), and in filing personalized ruling requests aimed at reducing the tax debt and complying with formal tax obligations, both for domestic and foreign entities. She also provides recurring advice in proceedings before the Tax Administration Service (“SAT”), including tax audits and refund request procedures, as well as in conclusive agreements as alternative dispute resolution mechanisms before the Taxpayer Advocate’s Office (“PRODECON”).

Experience

Kerstin has broad experience in tax law, with a special emphasis on the tax advisory field. She has provided comprehensive advice and assistance to clients in mergers and acquisitions, multinational restructuring processes, obtainment of authorizations to receive deductible donations (authorized donees) for income tax purposes, and in filing specialized ruling requests aimed at optimizing the tax debt and duly complying with formal tax obligations, both for domestic and foreign entities.

She also provides recurring advice in proceedings before the Tax Administration Service (“SAT”), including tax audits and refund request procedures, as well as in conclusive agreements as alternative dispute resolution mechanisms before the Taxpayer Advocate’s Office (“PRODECON”).
