Intellectual Property
Sports

João Miranda de Sousa is the partner in charge of the Garrigues offices in Portugal.

He specializes in intellectual property law, and conducts his activity in both Spain and Portugal. He has more than 30 years' experience in this area, part of which has been gained from notable positions he has held at the European Union Intellectual Property Office.

João is a leading lawyer, both in advising and defending businesses in industrial property, copyright and related rights and unfair competition disputes.

He holds a degree in law from Universidade Católica Portuguesa, which has been officially recognized in Spain. He also holds an Executive MBA from ESADE International Business School (Madrid) and is a guest lecturer on the Magister Lvcentinvs at Universidade de Alicante.

João has been recognized in his area of expertise by the main legal directories: Chambers & Partners (Eminent Practitioner in Spain and Portugal), World Trademark Review ("Gold" in Spain and Portugal), IAM Patent 1000 ("Gold" in Spain and Portugal), IP Stars (Managing IP) (Trademark Star in Portugal) and Best Lawyers.

Experience

João Miranda de Sousa has been a partner at Garrigues since 2008, and since then has been the global head of the Intellectual Property Department in Iberia. Since 2015, he has also been the partner in charge of the Garrigues offices in Portugal.

During the course of his professional career, João has participated in complex lawsuits: infringement of copyrights (e.g. software, television broadcasts), trademark infringement actions, designs and patents, unfair competition.

Some of the lawsuits in which he has participated have given rise to referrals for preliminary rulings from the Court of Justice of the European Union which have formed the basis of key judgments by this Court [e.g.:

Adega de Borba (C-629/17 - J. Portugal Ramos Vinhos), Cofemel (C-683/17 – Cofemel), RTL (C-716/20 RTL)].

He also has extensive experience in providing strategic advice to companies holding well-known trademarks, and especially with regard to the optimization of their trademark portfolios.

João also has vast experience in negotiating and drafting agreements and transactions involving intellectual property rights.

Apart from Portuguese and Spanish, he is also fluent in English, French, Italian and has a fair knowledge of German.

João has been a Member of the Portuguese Bar Association since 1986, and is also a Member of the Madrid Bar Association and the INTA (International Trademark Association).
