Dispute Resolution: Litigation and Arbitration

Doru Martín is a senior associate in the Litigation and Arbitration department; his entire professional career has been developed at Garrigues. He is a lawyer specialized in arbitration and litigation both on Civil and Commercial matters and has been involved in numerous cross-border legal disputes.

He is a member of the Valencia Bar Association and has collaborated with both the University of Valencia and the Jaume I University of Castellón.

In addition to Spanish, Valencian/Catalan and English, he is fluent in Romanian as it’s his mother tongue.

Experience

Doru Martín joined the firm in March 2016 and, as of January 2023, holds the rank of senior associate.

As a lawyer specialized in civil and commercial litigation and arbitration, his professional experience has focused on litigation relating to contractual disputes, real rights (litigation relating to property and possession disputes), personal rights, corporate disputes (challenging corporate resolutions, directors' liability, etc., etc.), insurance Law and banking Law.

During the course of his career, he has continuously intervened in numerous cross-border legal disputes or disputes with an international element requiring specialization in private international law and has also specialized in providing his services to foreign clients.
