Restructuring and Insolvency

Jorge Echanove is a principal associate in Garrigues' restructuring and insolvency practice, where he has been practicing since 2013, advising clients in corporate distress situations, both in the pre-insolvency phase and in insolvency proceedings, and defending the interests of both debtors and creditors.

He is a member of the Turnaround Management Association (TMA), the main association of professional experts in restructuring at both national and international level, and has been a lecturer at Universidad Villanueva since 2017, where he teaches the Insolvency Law subject on the Master's Degree for Admission to the Bar. He holds a degree in law and a degree in business administration and management (ICADE-E3) as well as an executive master's degree in Business Law Practice from Centro de Estudios Garrigues.

Experience

He has extensive experience advising national and international clients in corporate distress situations, both from the point of view of the creditor and the debtor, including, among others:

- Corporate restructuring processes.
- Pre-insolvency and insolvency proceedings.
- Judicial and extrajudicial debt recovery or refinancing processes.
- Acquisition of companies, assets and debt of companies in financial difficulties.
- Liability of administrators, directors and executives.
- Analysis of portfolios of Non Performing Loans (NPLs).

He has participated in some of the most relevant insolvency and restructuring proceedings in Spain with companies from multiple sectors, as well as in commercial transactions or civil and commercial court proceedings at all levels.

The multidisciplinary nature of the Restructuring and Insolvency practice has also allowed him to acquire a solid experience in a wide variety of commercial, procedural and labour issues generally involved in restructuring or refinancing processes.

Academic background

- Degree in Law and Business Administration, Universidad Pontificia Comillas (ICADE E-3).
- Executive Master's Degree in Business Law Practice, Centro de Estudios Garrigues.
