Tax

Abelardo Delgado is Of Counsel of the Tax Department of Garrigues, where he has been pursuing his professional career since 1999. He specializes in the areas of tax procedures, international taxation and constitutional aspects of tax law. He has a degree in law from Universidad Complutense de Madrid, a doctorate in Law from Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, and is a State Tax Inspector. He is a regular collaborator of specialist journals and publications, author of several publications, and professor at Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, Centro de Estudios Garrigues and other specialized centers of studies.

Experience

Abelardo Delgado is a State Tax Inspector (on voluntary leave of absence). Between 1982 and 1984, he carried out tax inspection duties and worked at the Directorate-General of Taxes. From November 1984 to December 1989, he held office at several Subdirectorates-General at the Ministry of the Economy and Finance. He first held the position of Secretary General of the Directorate-General of Financial and Tax Inspection, which later, in 1987, became the Subdirector-General of Legislation and Legal Assistance (appointed by Order of February 24, 1987, published in the Official State Gazette of March 18).

In July 1988 (appointment by Order of July 13, 1988, Official State Gazette of July 23), he was appointed Head of the Technical Council of the Office of the Secretary-General of Taxes, where he remained until December 1989.

Between January 1990 and December 1994, he held several senior positions at the Ministry of Economy and Finance. He was appointed as Director-General of Collection, by Royal Decree 1611/1989, of December 29, 1989 (Official State Gazette of December 30) and, later, Director of the Collection Department of the State Tax Agency, by Decision of January 2, 1992 (Official State Gazette of January 3).

He was appointed Director-General of the State Tax Agency by Royal Decree 1445/1993, of August 27, 1993 (Official State Gazette of August 28). He ceased from the post of Director-General of the State Tax Agency, by Royal Decree 1815/1994, of September 2, 1994 (Official State Gazette of September 3).

He has been a practicing attorney since January 1995. In November 1999, he joined Garrigues, Abogados y Asesores Tributarios, where he is currently Of Counsel.

He is classed among the top tax law specialists in Spain by publications such as Chambers Global, Best Lawyers and International Tax Review (Transfer Pricing).

Until 2012, he was a member of the Council for the Defense of the Taxpayer, following his appointment on June 17, 2005 (Order EHA/2018/2005, of June 17, published in the Official State Gazette of June 30).

He was one of the independent experts proposed by Spain eligible to become a member of the Advisory Commission provided for in the European Union Arbitration Convention on Transfer Pricing.

Abelardo Delgado is a member of the Madrid Bar Association and the Spanish Association of Tax Advisers.
