Corporate and M&A

Ignacio Eróstegui is a partner in the Corporate Department of Garrigues, in the Bilbao office, where he has been practising for over 25 years in the areas of Mergers, Acquisitions and Reorganisations (M&A), Commercial Contracts and Corporate Law and is a recognised expert in these areas.

Experience

Within his extensive experience, he has been involved in numerous domestic and international transactions, coordinating multidisciplinary financial and legal teams in the conception, design, due diligence and execution of such transactions, including the financing thereof and the legal conception of investments and projects. He has participated in multiple investment processes in Spain for foreign clients, while actively developing the leadership and complete legal advice of Spanish companies abroad, particularly in legal aspects related to contracting, investment, joint venture, acquisition or disinvestment in foreign companies or businesses. Within these processes, he has extensive experience in advising clients in industrial sectors such as automotive, aeronautics, services, energy and distribution, including advising investment funds and family offices in transactions and on a recurring basis.

He is secretary of the board of directors and legal advisor to national companies, family businesses and multinationals, with responsibility for the direction and management of the general legal affairs of many of them in relation to shareholder relations, corporate bodies and governance, corporate law and contracting, with particular expertise in the resolution of corporate conflicts and generational transition. He has been appointed observer on the boards of directors of foreign subsidiaries for various clients, as well as for Spanish subsidiaries of multinational groups.

In his pro bono activity he participates as legal advisor to non-profit organisations, being secretary of certain foundations linked to social insertion and having contributed throughout his career to the implementation and advice of projects with a social impact.
