

Roberto Torres Velasco

Local partner

Mexico City

roberto.torres@garrigues.com

Spanish English

Corporativo Reforma Diana -

Paseo de la Reforma, 412 -

26th floor

Col. Juárez ? 06600 Mexico City

(Mexico)

+52 55 1102 3570

+52 55 1102 3599

Administrative Law Environmental

Experience

Roberto Torres is the local partner in charge of the regulatory and environmental practice of Garrigues Mexico. He has practiced regulatory and environmental law for the past 16 years.

He is overall experienced in regulatory law, regulatory and environmental due diligence and advisory of real state, infrastructure, industrial and tourism projects; implementation of renewable sources exploitation and clean energy generation projects; processing and administration of environmental permits, licenses and concessions; drafting of federal and local environmental regulations; management of normalization issues. He has advised the Commission for Environmental Cooperation of North America. He is also experienced in international investor-state dispute resolution under ICSID's Additional Facility Rules.

Environmental Law professor at Universidad Iberoamericana (Mexico City, since 2015) and Escuela Libre de Derecho (2016)..

Co-founder and President of Colegio de Abogados por el Ambiente (Mexico City, since 2008).

Academic background

Diploma in Energy Law, Escuela Libre de Derecho, 2016.

Master in Environmental Policy and Management, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, 2008-2009.

Diploma in Real State and Tourism, ITAM, 2007.

Diploma in Environmental Law and Natural Resources, ITAM, 2001.

Law Degree, Escuela Libre de Derecho, 1996-2001.
