

Alberto Antonio Rodríguez Rodríguez

Principal associate
Malaga

alberto.antonio.rodriguez@garrigues.com

Marqués de Larios, 4
29005 Málaga (Spain)
Tel: +34 95 207 55 25
Fax: +34 95 207 55 35

Tax

Startups & Open innovation

Alberto A. Rodríguez is a principal associate in Garrigues' Tax Department, who has a wide knowledge and expertise in Spanish tax law and domestic and international Transfer Pricing regulation. He recurrently assists to Spanish and foreign companies, to MNE and to HWI and UHWI with sophisticated tax matters. He is able to provide comprehensive and highly-developed advice on complex national and international tax issues, having an extensive experience in the provision of tax services to listed multinational groups, financial institutions and technology and innovative companies. Executive Master's Degree in tax law from Centro de Estudios Garrigues & Harvard University. Degree in Economics and Business Studies, in Actuarial and Financial Sciences and in Business Administration and Management from Universidad de Málaga.

Experience

Alberto A. Rodríguez is a principal associate in Garrigues' Tax Department, who joined the firm in 2008. He has a wide knowledge and expertise in Spanish tax law and domestic and international Transfer Pricing regulation.

He recurrently assists to Spanish and foreign companies, to MNE and to HWI and UHWI with sophisticated tax matters. He is able to provide a comprehensive and highly-developed advice on complex national and international tax matters, having an extensive experience in the provision of tax services to listed multinational groups, financial institutions and technology and innovative companies.

Over the course of his professional career, he has been involved in some highly complex and sophisticated Transfer Pricing projects, including:

- The first Bilateral Advance Pricing Agreement (BAPA) signed by Spain and the US.
- Advance Pricing Agreements with the Spanish Tax Agency in the context of the Patent Box regime.
- The design of refined Transfer Pricing policies in relation to operational and financing transactions, acting as lead manager in their implementation in over 30 different jurisdictions.

Alberto A. Rodríguez has been actively assisting to international collective investment funds in their structuring of investments in Spain, particularly in real estate assets. He has also a broad expertise in Due Diligence processes and M&A transactions with national and international tax components.

Alberto A. Rodríguez is also specialized in the implementation of Spanish tax reliefs related to R&D, elimination of situations of international double taxation and the application of Spanish special tax regimes (e.g. Consolidation tax regime, ETVE regime, special tax regime for mergers, spin-offs and other reorganization transactions, etc.).

Academic background

- Degree in Economics and Business Studies from Universidad de Málaga.
- Degree in Actuarial and Financial Sciences from Universidad de Málaga.
- Degree in Business Administration and Management from Universidad de Málaga.
- Executive Master's Degree in tax law from Centro de Estudios Garrigues & Harvard University.