

GARRIGUES

David Sola Hernández

Principal associate

Alicante

david.sola@garrigues.com

San Fernando, 35

03001 Alicante (Spain)

Tel: +34 96 598 22 01

Fax: +34 96 598 24 94

Tax

David is a principal associate in the Tax Law practice at Garrigues, where he has developed his professional career since 2009.

He specializes in advising on corporate reorganizations, indirect taxation and taxation of public administrations.

Experience

He has extensive experience in advising family businesses and corporate groups, as well as in the taxation of Public Administrations, indirect taxation, real estate development, the automotive sector and corporate reorganization operations.

He also provides recurring advice on accounting and tax closure processes, tax review or due diligence processes and tax management, collection, sanctioning and inspection procedures.

Academic background

Degree in Economics from the University of Alicante.

Master's Degree in Taxation from the University of Alicante.

Practical Taxation Course at the University of Alicante.

Graduate of the Executive Master in Business Law - Centro de Estudios Garrigues & Harvard Law School.

Teaching activity

He is a regular speaker at seminars and conferences of the firm, and collaborates on a regular basis with various specialized centres, as well as institutions representative of the economic environment of Alicante (Fundesem, Professional Association of Insurance Mediators of Alicante or CEU Cardenal Herrera University of Elche).