Tax

Banking and Finance

Juan J. Gramaje Sellés is a partner in the Tax Department at Garrigues, where he has pursued his entire professional career. He specializes in providing tax advice to family businesses and business groups, both on an ongoing basis and on specific business reorganization transactions.

He has extensive experience in advising on company acquisitions by business groups, as well as on business divestments. In addition, he has a wealth of experience in handling and managing tax inspections and audits of companies and business groups.

He holds a Degree in Economics and Business Studies from Universidad de Valencia.

Experience

Juan J. Gramaje has pursued his entire professional career at Garrigues, following a period of nearly two years in the audit department at Arthur Andersen where he began his professional practice.

He has a wealth of experience in providing advice to family businesses in the Valencia autonomous region as well as to multinational groups with operating companies located in that region, having participated in myriad business reorganization transactions: mergers, spin-offs, exchanges and asset contributions.

Throughout his career, he has participated in and managed numerous tax inspection and audit proceedings.

In addition, he has participated in and advised on business investment and divestment transactions, both in the tax analysis and review of the companies acquired and in the structuring of the acquisition and the study of the tax consequences of the divestments.

He has extensive experience in providing tax advice to financial institutions.
