Corporate and M&A

Technology, Communications and Digital

Experience

Ildefonso Polo is a partner in Garrigues, where he has pursued almost his entire professional career following a period at Ernst&Young (where he worked until August 1999). He specializes in corporate/commercial law, especially in the areas of mergers & acquisitions, Distressed M&A, technology and outsourcing, and commercial contracts and company law.

His areas of expertise include M&A transactions (advising industrial clients and private equity funds alike); hedge funds and other distressed operators in the sale and purchase of loan portfolios (both performing and non-performing, secured and unsecured), real estate assets, corporate debt, shares in companies declared to be insolvent (or at risk of being so declared) and their businesses; outsourcing processes and IT; general commercial contracts; corporate advice on private and listed companies; and business reorganization processes (mergers, spin-offs, etc.) at national level as well as those with an international dimension.

His professional experience encompasses approaching, analyzing, negotiating and formalizing sale and purchase transactions (involving shares, businesses or a combination of both, as well as distressed debt); outsourcing agreements (of a technological nature and for business processes, including real estate and NPLs portfolios), and agreements for the development of ERPs, CRMs, licenses and software; and agreements on social networks (i.e. community management agreements) and cloud services; mergers, reorganizations and concentrations of companies and groups (at a national and cross-border level, both within and outside the EU); and advice on all aspects of company law to private and listed companies.

Ildefonso Polo is a member of Madrid Bar Association; is included in the Best Lawyers directory in the Corporate and M&A practice area; has lectured on the Master's courses on Business Law and Employment Law Counseling offered by Centro de Estudios Garrigues; and is a speaker at various seminars held by Asociación Española de Asesores Fiscales and Centro de Estudios Financieros (CEF).
